Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Instant invention drawn to a server having a store which can be accessed by one or more clients using a plurality of different protocols is allowable for including the following nonobvious improvement over the prior art of record:

if the event is a synchronous event, suspending client access to the item, providing complete control to the application logic and if the application does not abort, resuming client access to the item and committing the item to the store, if the event is an asynchronous event, then committing the item to the store and calling the application logic, the application logic not having complete control of the item.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
